

Yanks Wallop White Sox and Annex Second Place

George Mogridge Twirls His Third Shut-Out of the Season.

SPLENDID DEFENCE HELPS HIM A LOT

High and Gilhooley Cut Off Chicago Runs by Sure Shots to the Plate.

(By Telegraph to The Tribune.) Chicago, June 3.—The New York Yankees climbed into second place in the American League by defeating the Chicago White Sox here this afternoon. George Mogridge, the young star of the Yankee left-handers, was on the rubber and won a fling's battle with Jim Scott, Cy Williams and Joe Benz.

The score was 5 to 0. The Yanks by today's victory vaulted right over the Washington Senators, who were stopped by the Detroit Tigers in their invasion of Michigan. A margin of nine points now separates the teams.

Mogridge registered his third shut-out victory of the year in stopping Rowland's men, and he made a thorough job of it. He held the home team down to half a dozen hits and kept them well scattered.

In the fourth and seventh innings the Sox got two hits, but the Yankee defence came to the aid of the southpaw and checked the advance on the home plate. A wonderful throw by Gilhooley from right field to third base, retiring Jack Ness, had a quieting effect on the Windy City men. In the fifth a double play stopped a run.

There were not the only instances of how the Yankees stood in behind their pitcher, and even their work on the mound was of a superior brand, he was not lacking in support.

Enter First Victim.

Jim Scott, who has been accused of making his home in Death Valley at various times, but who does not come from that part of the country at all, was sent out to oppose the invaders. Jim had little trouble in beating the Yankees in the past, but today it was different. He retired the first three batters, but then he was out of the game.

The latter was no improvement on Scott, and in turn abdicated the mound in favor of Joe Benz. The last named was nipped for a run, so he was quite in a fix.

The Yankees did some long distance swatting in the course of the afternoon. They gathered in behind their pitcher, and even their work on the mound was of a superior brand, he was not lacking in support.

Fielding Was Bully.

It was well for the home pitchers that the fielding was clean and sharp. No errors bobbed up to make the way of the runners a bit easier. Ray Schalk caught a beautiful game, and nothing came from him. He ran to the stands to make a great catch of Gilhooley's twisting foul, and handled the pitchers as best he could. Eddie Collins took care of the chances that fell into his hands, while Peck made one error in nine tries.

The game was useless until the fifth. Then Pipp drove to right for the first hit off Scott. Pecknappe kicked in, but he was hit by a one-base walk-off scored Pipp.

In the sixth Lee Magee picked out a place far beyond the range of Happy Felisch and sent a ball on a long journey to that spot. Lee was home far in advance of the throw-in, and another run was chalked up on the score board.

Affairs then quieted down until the eighth. Williams was on the mound in this session, replacing Scott when Nunnemaker doubled. After Mogridge had sacrificed Gilhooley drove a triple into right field and Nunnemaker scored. Magee hit a long fly and Gilhooley ran down the plate. The going being good, Gilhooley doubled and Baker walked, but Peck failed in the pinch.

In the ninth Peck walked and scored on a triple by Nunnemaker.

LACROSSE TITLE FOR MANUAL TRAINING H. S.

For the eighth consecutive year, the Manual Training High School lacrosse team carried the championship to Crescent Field by a score of 7 to 0. The game was roughly contested and several players were ordered from the field. Rob Klever was the star of the team, scoring three goals in rapid succession. Ray Gallagher and Olsen also played well for Manual. For Curtis Johnston and Ulrich played the best.

RICHMOND BEATS NEWARK TEAM

Mayor Raymond Watches Slaughter After Making Presentation Speech.

Richmond came back with renewed vigor against Newark in an International League contest at Newark yesterday and bowled over the Indians by a score of 7 to 2. The Rebels found Cy Pieh easy picking after the third inning.

The defeat for Newark was made doubly hard, as it took place in front of Mayor Raymond, the city's chief executive, and a crowd gathered for the celebration of "Schreier day," in honor of Rube Schreier, the Newark cub shortstop, who was recently graduated from the sand lots.

Mayor Raymond and party arrived in the sixth inning, and the Mayor, in behalf of admiring friends, presented Schreier with a diamond stickpin and two wreaths of flowers.

Miss Alice Robinson, of Stroudsburg, Penn., fiancée of the player, was a spectator. Schreier got in the game and played good ball, but didn't make a hit.

The Indians started with two winners, with two runs in the first inning, but there stopped abruptly. The tallies were due to a home run by Durgin over the right field fence. Cable was on base, having received a free pass from Richmond.

After that Newark was in a Rhoades' hand. He allowed only one other hit during the game. That was made by Witter in the seventh inning.

Richmond tied the score in the fourth, when Kerscher's double sent in McDermott and Banks. Then the Rebels put the game on ice in the fifth with three tallies, through a combination of hitting, daring base running and Newark errors.

After Clemens was retired Eibel singled. Hendry followed with a hit to right. Aragon was safe on Cable's error. Eibel scored. Aragon stole second.

Hendry followed from third as Schwert made a poor throw to the key stone sack. McDermott hit to Schreier and Aragon beat the throw to the plate.

Ted Meredith's Mark for Quarter Mile Equalled by Butler, of Chicago.

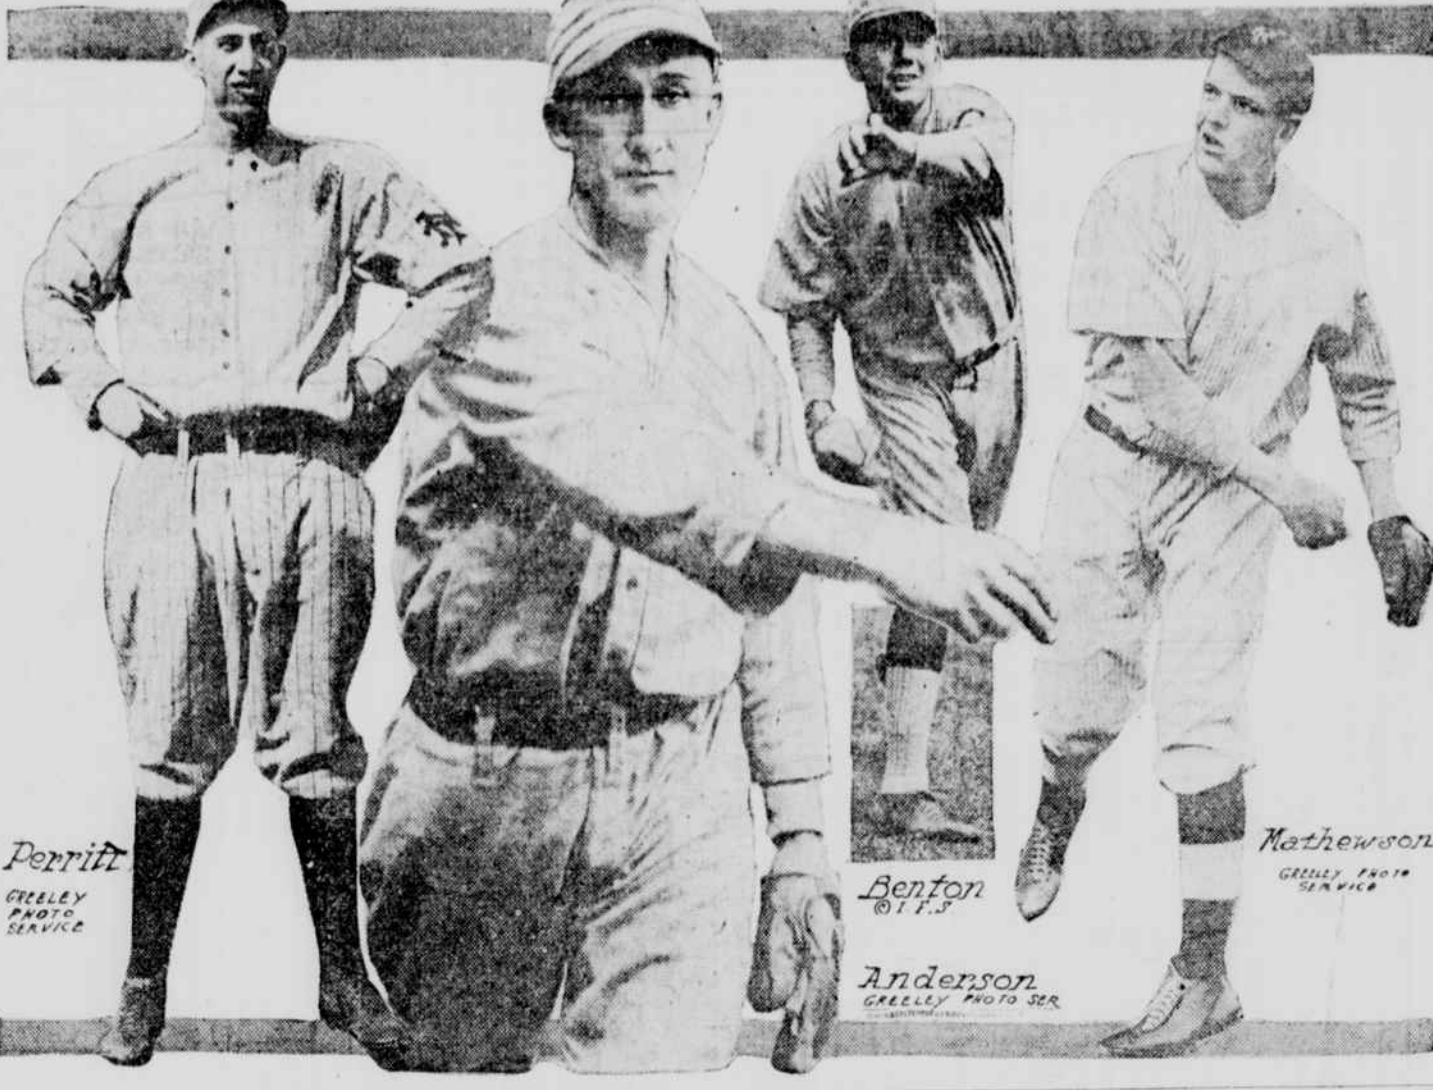

Chicago, June 3.—Wisconsin's athletes for the second time in succession won the Conference track meet on Northwestern Field to-day. The Badgers scored in twelve of the sixteen events and finished more than fourteen points ahead of Illinois, whose men were expected to give the Badgers a close battle.

Two world records were equalled and four old "big nine" marks were broken, while another was tied. The disqualification of the California star, Liverdise, spoiled another record in the shot put, in which he did 47 feet 5 inches. Liverdise and his team mate, Nichols, in the javelin throw and shot put, were found to have been disqualified for using a javelin and shot put which were found to be of the wrong material.

Bob Simpson, the Missouri hurdler, was the star of the meet. He won the 120-yard high hurdles in his own record time of 14.5 seconds, broke the Conference record by doing the low hurdles in 23.45 and took second place in the broad jump.

Carman Smith, of Wisconsin, won ten points for the Badgers by taking first place in both sprints, tying the big nine record in the 220.

RUTGERS LOSES GAME IN TENTH

N. Y. U. Victors in Close Contest—Losing Pitcher Fans—Thirteen Batsmen.

New York University turned the tables on Rutgers College yesterday afternoon on Ohio Field at the annual Alumni Day game, and defeated the Red and Black by the score of 4 to 3. The game went for ten innings.

The Violet ball tossers played one of the best games that they have put up this year. Errors were few, and the hitting was timely. One of the features was a double play in the second inning by Wolf and Mendelsohn. A double steal in which Tetelmann and Wolf figured was responsible for two of the runs scored by the locals, both scoring on Egan's single to right.

Selie, the star batter for the Violet, knocking out a home run that as a matter of record is the longest hit ever made on Ohio Field.

The locals captured the game in the tenth inning after two men were out. Selie, the star batter for the Violet, knocking out a home run that as a matter of record is the longest hit ever made on Ohio Field.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., June 3.—Joe Wright arrived at the training quarters of the Pennsylvania crews to-day with a squad of thirty-six men, and sent his charges out for a six-mile run as soon as the boats were rigged.

Penn has been a child of misfortune since the Child's Cup race, Gotham, N. Y. in the first boat, is lost to his crew. He has been in poor condition all season, and was finally forced to abandon hope of rowing in the coming regatta after a medical examination yesterday in Philadelphia. Five other men, Scott, Garvin, White, Haun and Borie, were forced to quit through inability.

This leaves only two veterans of last year's Poughkeepsie shell, Pepper, rowing at No. 6, and Captain W. E. Chickering, at No. 7. This junior crew also left for New York for the race, found his import of 132 pounds too much. W. J. Young's filly Water Witch lasted well in the stretch, and was third, a length back of Roamer, and an equal distance in front of W. J. Weber's Hindoe.

The time for the mile and a quarter was 2:04.5. Ed Crump, coupled with Dick Williams as the Schorr entry, was third choice in the Paris mutuels, wagging at odds of slightly better than 2 to 1.

At the rise of the barrier the eleven starters were away well bunched. At the quarter Marion Goosby held a slight lead, but lost it to Harry Payne Whitney's Borow, last year's Handicap winner, while rounding the backstretch.

Borrow was unable to endure the strain of paeckmaking. Roamer had been running well up to this stage and sprinted into the lead, to hold it well into the stretch, where he gradually succumbed to the winner. Jockey Guy Garner, on Ed Crump, rode a well timed race.

Jefferson Livingston's English bred Royal II and Dick Williams always were well up. Water Blossom, Ham O'Day, Marion Goosby, Borrow and Old Keeney finished in the order named, strong out.

KOH-I-NOOR ANNEXES RICH FASHION STAKES

Horse No. 1 First in Five Events—Sam McKeen Wins from Plater Field.

By E. D. BURROWS.

Midday, according to James is the proper time to shoot the sun. At least, his beautiful light electric colt, High Noon, had no difficulty whatever in annexing the twenty-third running of the Toboggan Handicap, which featured the programme of the Winter Park Racing Association at Belmont yesterday afternoon.

The four-year-old son of a Viceroy, which captured the season event last year in the somewhat remarkable time of 1:09 3/5, was far away the best of the field of starters which faced the barrier, and before the septet had proceeded half way down the six-furlong straightaway the crowd of 10,000 persons had signed the only question being by what chance the wonderful light sprinter would win.

There were hot tips out on practically every one of the seven thoroughbred horses which answered the bugle of the starter. The favorite, High Noon, made up of that one-time brilliant sprinter, Phosphor, and the stable gelding, Hanson, was made a favorite in the betting, despite the fact that thousands of the spectators preferred High Noon and backed the colt with the odds of 10 to 1.

Oscar Lewisohn and his friends, in a heavy commission on his imperious gelding, Benevolent, and August Belmont is said to have made wagers of considerable sums on his out-of-controler, Tea Caddy, and out-of-controler, Tea Caddy.

Lewisohn Entry Makes Strong Bid. But High Noon fooled them all. The sterling colt, picking up 124 pounds a track which was barely recovering from a heavy fall of rain, dashed the six furlongs in 1:10 4/5, beating the stout-hearted challenge of his Lewisohn rival by a margin of nearly a generous three lengths to the good.

Benevolent captured the place for Phosphor, which did not seem able to get going, while Hanson, Tea Caddy and Fenmore, who had been determined to get in the money, but ran for a chance, the course, over against the stand and, lost enough distance to ruin his chances. Tea Caddy and Fenmore showed little or nothing in the company of the winner.

But Mr. Parsons, owner of Phosphor and Hanson, had already captured another feature of the afternoon—Fashion—and taken down a handsome cash prize of $3,000. The winner, Jewel, put this number over a popular owner, clearly outclassing the field of four other young lions in dancing home at the somewhat prohibitive odds of 10 to 1.

Rock, gave Koh-i-Noor a run for the money, but when the real test came, the Parsons black appeared to take wings, fairly flying across the line, and the Koh-i-Noor was left struggling. Triple Crown, favored by many of the layers, finished just ahead of H. P. Whitney's Hour. Jigger Snap II, an importation, showed no foot whatsoever.

"Top Horse" the Big Favorite. "Top Horse" was the great bet of the day. In five of the seven races, the colt, which carried No. 1 on the saddle cloth, came home first. Goss, in the last race, being the "top" which did not come through. Schoolboy, James Butler's entry in the recent season's Handicap, was the English favorite Emden quit out of the last pole, sprinting beautifully through a broken field, to win by a comfortable margin.

Jockey Loftus gave the Butler gelding a fine ride, and Emden, who was held at 3 to 5 and better, was had a chance. He managed to get in second place, McTaggart, carrying Keziah in for the show money, in front of Dr. Gremer and Emden, who was fully recovered from his recent attack of "buck," carried McTaggart to victory in his first race of the 1916 season at Belmont.

After the race, the Butler gelding, who was fully recovered from his recent attack of "buck," carried McTaggart to victory in his first race of the 1916 season at Belmont. The Butler gelding, who was fully recovered from his recent attack of "buck," carried McTag
